

We're writing habitational risks in Maryland

As of October 1, 2021, MBG expanded its commercial lines appetite to include writing habitational risks for BOP and CPP in the state of Maryland.

Previously, our appetite guide listed habitational risks as eligible only in Pennsylvania.

Click these links to view copies of the underwriting guidelines, as well as the Habitational Supplemental Application (CL00031012) that needs to be fully completed to obtain a quote. This supplemental application is also available on www.mbgagents.com in the forms library.
